At this point of the week we have a near full house of players from our regular list. This made selection a bit of a nightmare at times. Changes had to be made taking into consideration many things. Our aim is to make each side strong and they all definitely look strong this week. It is all for the good of the club so please don't read too much into the changes. Form, positions, compatibility, losses v wins, feedback etc all come into it but having nearly everyone available plays a big part so decisions have to be made.
